

Guggenheim Investments Recognized for Best Fixed Income Initiatives at WealthManagement.com Industry Awards

Guggenheim's timely and relevant fixed income commentary and research cited for supporting financial advisor success and helping clients navigate investors toward their financial goals

NEW YORK, NY – October 12, 2015 – Guggenheim Investments, the global asset management and investment advisory business of Guggenheim Partners, was recognized for most outstanding fixed income initiatives on behalf of advisors at the inaugural WealthManagement.com Industry Awards.

Guggenheim Investments received the award for its outstanding contributions in its ongoing series of fixed income perspectives, macro views and sector updates that support advisors in their roles with clients.

In its award announcement, WealthManagement.com said, "Global Chief Investment Officer and Chairman of Investments Scott Miner is widely recognized as one of the reliable go-to authorities on the fixed-income markets. Along with a crack team of economists, strategists and analysts, Guggenheim puts out copious amounts of analysis for advisors. Close to 30,000 subscribe to their thought leadership, with engagement rates that double industry averages."

The WealthManagement.com Industry Awards program, in its first year, is designed to recognize the companies and organizations that support financial advisor success.

"We're honored to receive this award, which is a result of the hard work by our research team and investment professionals and the dedication of all 850 Guggenheim Investments employees toward the success of our clients," Miner said.
