

Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio, Series 8

Investment Objective

The Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio, Series 8 (Trust) seeks to provide above average dividend income coupled with the potential for long-term capital appreciation.

Key Considerations

- Financially Sound Companies: The Trust seeks to invest in well-established, financially sound companies with attractive financial and competitive characteristics.
- Attractive Income: The Trust seeks to provide a higher dividend yield than that of the broad equity market, which may be attractive in the current low interest rate environment.
- Reduce Volatility: Guggenheim believes blue chip stocks, which are large-capitalization by definition, may help reduce overall portfolio volatility.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Access Quality Companies Paying Above-Average Dividends

Blue chip companies that combine both strong, stable financials with consistent income can be an attractive addition to a portfolio. That's why Guggenheim created the Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio. This portfolio provides access to quality blue chip companies that have historically paid above-average dividends. Guggenheim believes that these financially sound companies typically have strong management teams that may have the ability to weather downturns and operate profitably in various economic conditions.

In constructing the Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio, Guggenheim analysts conduct fundamental analysis to identify dividend-paying companies with quality metrics such as profitability and profit growth, revenue growth, return on equity and share price stability. As a way of further identifying value-enhancing opportunities, scrutiny is also paid to recent company news that might impact near-term operating results, but may not yet be embodied in financial filings or the stock price. The Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio offers investors the potential for capital appreciation and income.

Daily Encounters with Blue Chip Stocks

<sup>1</sup>The Historical Annual Dividend Distribution (HADD) is as of the day prior to trust deposit and subject to change. There is no guarantee the issuers of the securities included in the Trust will declare dividends or distributions in the future. Due to the negative economic impact across many industries caused by the recent COVID-19 outbreak, certain issuers of the securities included in the Trust may elect to reduce the amount of, or cancel entirely, dividends and/or distributions paid in the future. As a result, the HADD figure will likely be higher, and in some cases significantly higher, than the actual distribution rate achieved by the Trust. The HADD of the securities included in the Trust is for illustrative purposes only and is not indicative of the Trust's distribution rate. The HADD is the weighted average of the trailing twelve-month distributions paid by the securities included in the portfolio and is reduced to account for the effects of fees and expenses, which will be incurred when investing in the Trust. The HADD will vary due to certain factors that may include, but are not limited to, a change in the dividends paid by issuers, a change in Trust expenses or the sale or maturity of securities in the portfolio. <sup>2</sup>The deferred sales charge (DSC) is a fixed amount and will be deducted in monthly installments on the last business day commencing September 2022 and ending November 2022 or upon early redemption. For unit prices other than $10, percentages of C&D fees, and DSCs will vary but in no event will the maximum sales charge (S/C) exceed the total S/C. Early redemption of units will still cause payment of the DSC. However, an initial sales charge, which is equal to the difference between the maximum S/C and the sum of any remaining deferred S/C charges and C&D, will be charged if the price paid for units exceeds $10 per unit. <sup>3</sup>For unit prices other than $10, percentage of the C&D fee will vary.

The Blue Chip Dividend Portfolio, Series 8 is a Unit Investment Trust.

RISK CONSIDERATIONS: As with all investments, you may lose some or all of your investment in the Trust. No assurance can be given that the Trust's investment objective will be achieved. The Trust also might not perform as well as you expect. This can happen for reasons such as these: • Securities prices can be volatile. The value of your investment may fall over time. Market value fluctuates in response to various factors. Changes in legal, political, regulatory, tax and economic conditions may cause fluctuations in markets and securities prices, which could negatively impact the value of the Trust. Events such as war, terrorism, natural and environmental disasters and the spread of infectious illnesses or other public health emergencies may adversely affect the economy, various markets and issuers. Recently, the outbreak of a novel and highly contagious form of coronavirus ("COVID-19") has adversely impacted global commercial activity and contributed to significant volatility in certain markets. Many governments and businesses have instituted quarantines and closures, which has resulted in significant disruption in manufacturing, supply chains, consumer demand and economic activity. The potential impacts are increasingly uncertain, difficult to assess and impossible to predict, and may result in significant losses. Any adverse event could materially and negatively impact the value and performance of trust and the Trust's ability to achieve its investment objectives. • Share prices or dividend rates on the securities in the Trust may decline during the life of the Trust and there is no guarantee that the issuers of the securities will declare dividends in the future and, if declared, whether they will remain at current levels or increase over time. • The Trust may be susceptible to potential risks through breaches in cybersecurity. • The Trust is subject to risks arising from various operational factors and their service providers. Although the Trust seeks to reduce operational risks through controls and procedures, there is no way to completely protect against such risks. • Inflation may lead to a decrease in the value of assets or income from investments. Please see the Trust prospectus for more complete risk information.

Unit Investment Trusts are fixed, not actively managed and should be considered as part of a long-term strategy. Investors should consider their ability to invest in successive portfolios, if available, at the applicable sales charge. UITs are subject to annual fund operating expenses in addition to the sales charge. Investors should consult an attorney or tax advisor regarding tax consequences associated with an investment from one series to the next, if available, and with the purchase or sale of units. Guggenheim Funds Distributors, LLC does not offer tax advice.
