

Dow 50 Value Dividend Portfolio, Series 52

Investment Objective

The Dow 50 Value Dividend Portfolio, Series 52 (Trust) seeks to provide total return primarily through capital appreciation and current dividend income by investing in a portfolio of common stocks.

Key Considerations

- High Conviction Multi-Cap Value Allocation: The trust invests in U.S.-listed mid- and large-cap value stocks that Guggenheim believes may serve as an attractive addition to an investor's overall portfolio.
- Strength, Stability and Income: The trust seeks to identify stocks that are strong, stable, and have historically paid above average dividend income, which may provide a buffer against market volatility in a well-balanced portfolio.
- Avoids Value Traps: The trust's rigorous security selection process seeks to eliminate stocks with high volatility, which may have a higher likelihood of losses during market downturns, while focusing on those with high profitability and future growth opportunities.

Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. There is no guarantee that the trends and projections noted above will continue or come to fruition and they are subject to change.

¹The Historical Annual Dividend Distribution (HADD) is as of the day prior to trust deposit and subject to change. There is no guarantee the issuers of the securities included in the Trust will declare dividends or distributions in the future. Due to the negative economic impact across many industries caused by COVID-19, certain issuers of the securities included in the Trust may elect to reduce the amount of, or cancel, dividends and/or distributions paid in the future. As a result, the HADD figure may be higher, and in some cases significantly higher, than the actual distribution rate achieved by the Trust. The HADD of the securities included in the Trust is for illustrative purposes only and is not indicative of the Trust's distribution rate. The HADD is the weighted average of the trailing twelve-month distributions paid by the securities included in the portfolio and is reduced to account for the effects of fees and expenses, which will be incurred when investing in the Trust. The HADD will vary due to certain factors that may include, but are not limited to, a change in the dividends paid by issuers, a change in Trust expenses or the sale or maturity of securities in the portfolio.

Avoid Value Traps with a Multi-Cap Portfolio Focused on Quality

Value investors attempt to seek stocks of companies whose prices may be undervalued based on fundamentals and long-term growth potential, which may create the perception that these companies offer opportunity for positive price movement. However, in certain cases these discounted stocks are "value traps." In other words, these stocks are cheap for a reason and may have difficulty rebounding. To help provide investors access to high dividend, quality-focused value stocks, Guggenheim created the Dow 50 Value Dividend Portfolio.

By screening out companies with the highest volatility, Guggenheim seeks to avoid over-leveraged companies or those with economic sensitivity that could make them vulnerable in downturns. This portfolio consists of 50 value-focused stocks that Guggenheim believes may provide the highest dividend yield, lowest volatility, and the highest potential for sustainable price appreciation over the life of the trust. Stocks are weighted based on the company's indicated dividend yield,² seeking to avoid portfolio domination by a few large stocks.

Deferred S/C ³	$0.135	1.35%
Creation and Development (C&D) Fee	$0.050	0.50%
Total S/C	$0.185	1.85%
Fee/Wrap Accounts ⁴
Creation and Development (C&D) Fee	$0.050	0.50%

³The deferred sales charge (DSC) is a fixed amount and will be deducted in monthly installments on the last business day commencing July 2023 and ending September 2023 or upon early redemption. For unit prices other than $10, percentages of C&D fees, and DSCs will vary but in no event will the maximum sales charge (S/C) exceed the total S/C. Early redemption of units will still cause payment of the DSC. However, an initial sales charge, which is equal to the difference between the maximum S/C and the sum of any remaining deferred S/C charges and C&D, will be charged if the price paid for units exceeds $10 per unit.

⁴For unit prices other than $10, percentage of the C&D fee will vary.
